

Doctrine and the Metanarrative

- Theology proper
  - Attaches meaning to Love and describes God
- Christology
  - Central to the process of re-creation and gives concrete meaning to love
- Pneumatology
  - Illuminates the concept of creation, reveals sin, draws us to re-creation, and is operative in the process
- Anthropology
  - Object of God's love, result of his creation, destroyed by sin, restored by re-creation
- Hamartiology
  - A window into what is wrong in the world that I can and can not help

Doctrine and the Metanarrative (cont.)

- Soteriology
  - The core of re-creation
- Ecclesiology
  - The church is one of the instruments God uses to illustrate love, reveal sin and facilitate re-creation.
- Eschatology
  - The culmination of re-creation and the new metanarrative for a new world
- Bibliology
  - The process of God revealing the details of the story
- Angelology
  - Beings who are both confederates and enemies in the metanarrative.

It discusses, to varying degrees, all 10 of the “Great Doctrines”

- Theology proper
- Christology
- Pneumatology
- Anthropology
- Hamartiology
- Soteriology
- Ecclesiology
- Eschatology
- Bibliology
- Angelology

Since these doctrines are “Great” you had better know what they are!!!!!! I’m just sayin’....