27 minutes per week to communicate

A little planned time — is better than a lot of spontaneous time —

Planned = have a list.

Obsession with Significance.

∴ my spouse either becomes ★ an enabler or a hindrance
to that success, or significance

5/2

Money does not buy happiness, but it does buy time and opportunity.

Opportunity.

D. Inboden

Money is not ^{necessarily} a "man-thing";
It is a "most competent person" thing.
Spouses get frustrated w/ having to beg or constantly say "no."

$ cont.

Perhaps it is best for each spouse to have some $ that is his or her "own."

Sexual Saints

Do sex and prayer go together?

Does sex make us holy?

We are ^{the} most content when we compare the least.

Satan's best ploy is to foster comparison.

Our experiences w/ nakedness tends to be eroticized and idealized.

We create a mental catalog of what we believe is beautiful.

That catalog becomes the basis of comparison and determiner of our "contentment"

God seems so committed to monogamy-

- Rearing Children
- Security of community
- It assures emotional security and a comparison-free sex life.

God calls me to always use my body for the good of those he loves.
